

two or instructors, and also to provide a smithy and carpenter's shop & furnish them with the necessary tools, and employ a blacksmith, carpenter and farmer for the like term of twenty years to instruct the Indians in their respective occupations. And the United States finally agree to employ a physician to reside at the said central agency who shall furnish medicine and advise to their sick and shall vaccinate them; the expenses of said school, shops, persons employed and medical attendance to be defrayed by the United States and not deducted from the annuities.

Art. XV. This treaty shall be obligatory on the contracting parties as soon as the same shall be ratified by the President and Senate of the United States.

In testimony whereof the said Isaac J. Stevens, Governor and Superintendent of Indian Affairs, and the undersigned Chiefs, head men & delegates of the aforesaid tribes and bands of Indians have hereunto set their hands and seals at the place and on the day and year herebefore written.
